

Six in Six

Term 5 2018: Sept - Oct

A Woodstock Youth Work Trust newsletter looking at six exciting things that happened in the last six weeks, and six exciting things coming up in the next six weeks.

LAST 6 WEEKS

We took a young person on a mission trip to Bicester which was a huge catalyst for their faith.

We held Prayer Spaces in Marlborough School again.

Encounter has continued to grow, and more and more people are coming each month.

Our volunteer team has been growing both in size and in terms of bonding together.

Attending Learning Communities helped us to think through leadership, and how we can have more leaders emerging into the ministry.

The summer holidays allowed some space to think and reflect on how we expand this year.

UPCOMING 6 WEEKS

We will be starting up all our groups again with the new school year.

We are looking at changing the venue for 'Board' in line with the youth club reopening.

We are going to start being more present in the local Woodstock churches starting this year.

We are looking at ways to create leadership opportunities for volunteers and young people.

We are looking at how we can grow and develop the things that we are doing.

We are looking at how to develop and grow our existing group, and how they fit into our vision.
